

- Think about what has been discussed in terms of moving, scanning and interacting.
- Consider and record your current practices during large-group instruction, small-group instruction, work time and transition times.
- How could active supervision be enhanced in your classroom?